

Danvers Community Access Internship Program

Interns are a powerful tool in any work environment. The benefits of a good internship whilst in school are immeasurable. DCAT strives to make sure every internship is completely hands on, that every day new projects and skills are presented and that every intern reaches their full potential.

Benefits for Interning at DCAT

- Ability to create a demo reel for the interns' prospective employers
- Real world, hands-on experience
- Eligibility for DCAT's free media production courses
- Access to all facilities and equipment
- Friendly work environment
- Great community involvement
- Gain a variety of communication skills (production, writing for the media, teaching, etc.)

Eligibility Requirements

- Enrolled college or High School students
- Able to work for credits
- College Students: Preferred major in: Mass Communications, Video Production, TV/Video/Radio or Marketing
- Good written and verbal communication skills
- An ambitious self-starter, can work independently as well as part of a team
- Works well with people (both adults and children)
- High School Students: Must be in Senior year
- Reliable, dependable and mature
- Must be able to pass a CORI check

Responsibilities

- Learn and operate all studio equipment as well as participate in studio shows (including acting as a member of the crew and breaking down and setting up sets)
- Learn and operate all field equipment as well as be available for on location shoots
- Shoot and edit programs in a timely manner using Adobe Premiere
- Plan and research an independent documentary
- Publicize upcoming shows and events as well as advertise previously created series
- Reach out to community through local newspapers and online forums to draw in more volunteers
- Create content for LIVE programming
- Work with clients to create PSA's
- Assist teaching during classes and/or camps

Application Deadlines

- Summer: April 30th
- Fall: July 31st
- Winter: December 15th