PRELUDE

II Movement of KV 545

W. A. Mozart

(A time for meditation in preparation for worshipping God)

WORDS OF GREETING AND WELCOME

CALL TO WORSHIP

One: We are not our own:

People: so, neither our will nor our wisdom should get in the way of God's hopes for us.

One: We are not on our own:

People: so, we should not choose what is easiest or the most gratifying way to live.

One: We are not our own, we are God's:

People: so, let us choose to live for God, and serve all of God's children.

One: We are not on our own, as we walk the streets of God's kingdom:

People: so, as far as is possible, we will follow Jesus Christ.

--Thom Shuman

OPENING HYMN

Rejoice, You Pure in Heart

Black No. 55

INVOCATION OF GOD’S PRESENCE (IN UNISON)

All around us, O God, creation preaches a silent sermon about your glory.

The full, orange moon declares your constant watchfulness; the early morning mist over a schoolyard speaks of your steadfast love; the cool breeze through slowly changing leaves whispers of your grace.

Holy Jesus, you ask questions which turn us speechless; you tell us things about yourself we imagine we need to correct; you offer us a way of life we dare not refuse. Spirit of Wisdom, you stand in the midst of rush hour traffic crying out to us about our fascination with foolishness and stretch out your hand to point to the One who walks towards us offering a cross.

God in Community, Holy in One, in this time together, may we hear you in the silence and the songs, and discover you in the people around us, even as we pray as Jesus teaches us...

--Thom Shuman

Please stand as you are able.*

THE LORD'S PRAYER (IN UNISON)

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread, and forgive us our trespasses,
As we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

RESPONSE

Tune: Blue No. 241

Spirit divine, attend our prayers,
And make this world thy home.
Descend with all thy gracious powers,
O come, great Spirit, come!

Maple Street Church Earth Stewards are learning that rising global temperatures and population growth are causing a growing number of people in the US to have limited access to safe drinking water. In fact, by 2020, 5 of the world's top 20 cities with the largest urban water deficits will be here in the U.S.! Danvers is just one of many Northshore communities with water restrictions in place today, due to concerns that demand may outstrip supply at times. Not only is clean drinking water becoming scarcer, it takes energy to produce and bring water to your home. What can we do to help? We can learn to adapt by supporting policies that fight climate change, and by learning new ways to avoid wasting water. Next time: Changing our behavior to avoid wasting fresh, clean water.

SCRIPTURE LESSON —Mark 8:27-38

Pew Bible 875-876

“Jesus went on with his disciples to the villages of Caesarea Philippi; and on the way he asked his disciples, “Who do people say that I am?” And they answered him, “John the Baptist; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the prophets.” He asked them, “But who do you say that I am?” Peter answered him, “You are the Messiah.” And he sternly ordered them not to tell anyone about him.

Then he began to teach them that the Son of Man must undergo great suffering, and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed, and after three days rise again. He said all this quite openly. And Peter took him aside and began to rebuke him. But turning and looking at his disciples, he rebuked Peter and said, “Get behind me, Satan! For you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things.”

He called the crowd with his disciples, and said to them, “If any want to become my followers, let them deny themselves and take up their cross and follow me. For those who want to save their life will lose it, and those who lose their life for my sake, and for the sake of the gospel, will save it. For what will it profit them to gain the whole world and forfeit their life? Indeed, what can they give in return for their life? Those who are ashamed of me and of my words in this adulterous and sinful generation, of them the Son of Man will also be ashamed when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels.”
